

Stakeholder Collaboration for Knowledge Management in Preparedness

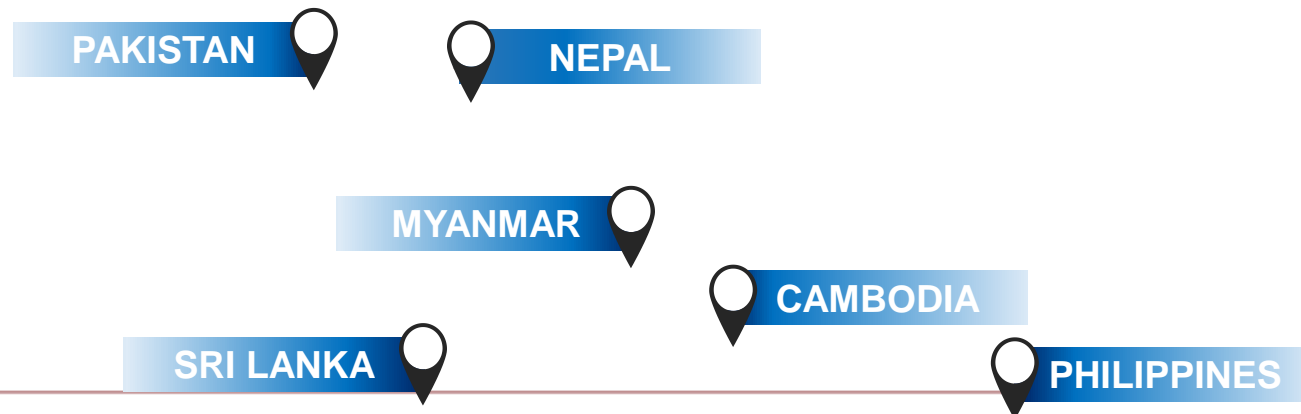

Dr. Buddhi Weerasinghe, ADPC

“Strengthening Capacity of Government, Local Humanitarian Organization and Private Sector on Preparedness for Emergency Response”

Project Implementation Partners and Countries

- Ministries of Disaster Management and National Disaster Management Offices
- Local Humanitarian Organizations working in Emergency Response
- National Humanitarian Networks
- Private Sector
- Academia

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

More effective partnerships
among actors

01

Improved Humanitarian Leadership

02

04

Better coordination of Humanitarian Actions

Faster and equitable access to Humanitarian Information

03

Sri Lanka Preparedness Partnership (SLPP)

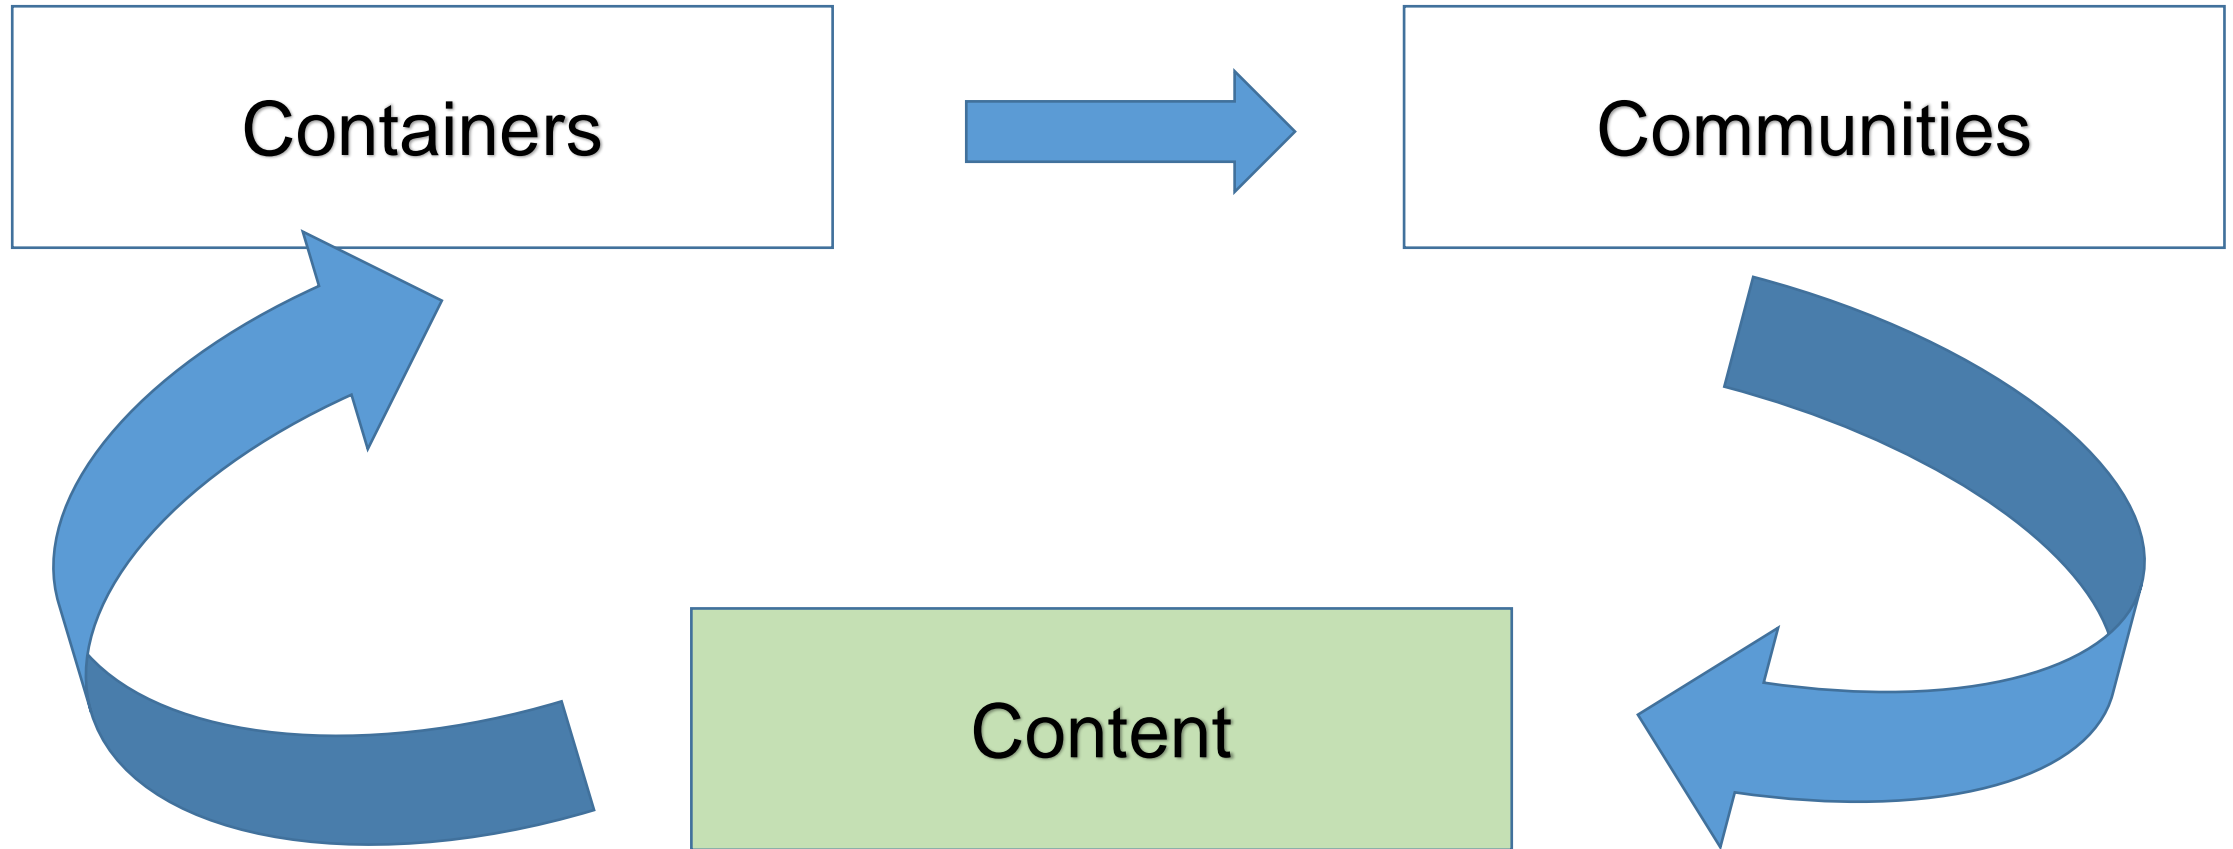

“Strengthening Capacity of Government, Local Humanitarian Organization and Private Sector on Preparedness for Emergency Response in Sri Lanka” Project.

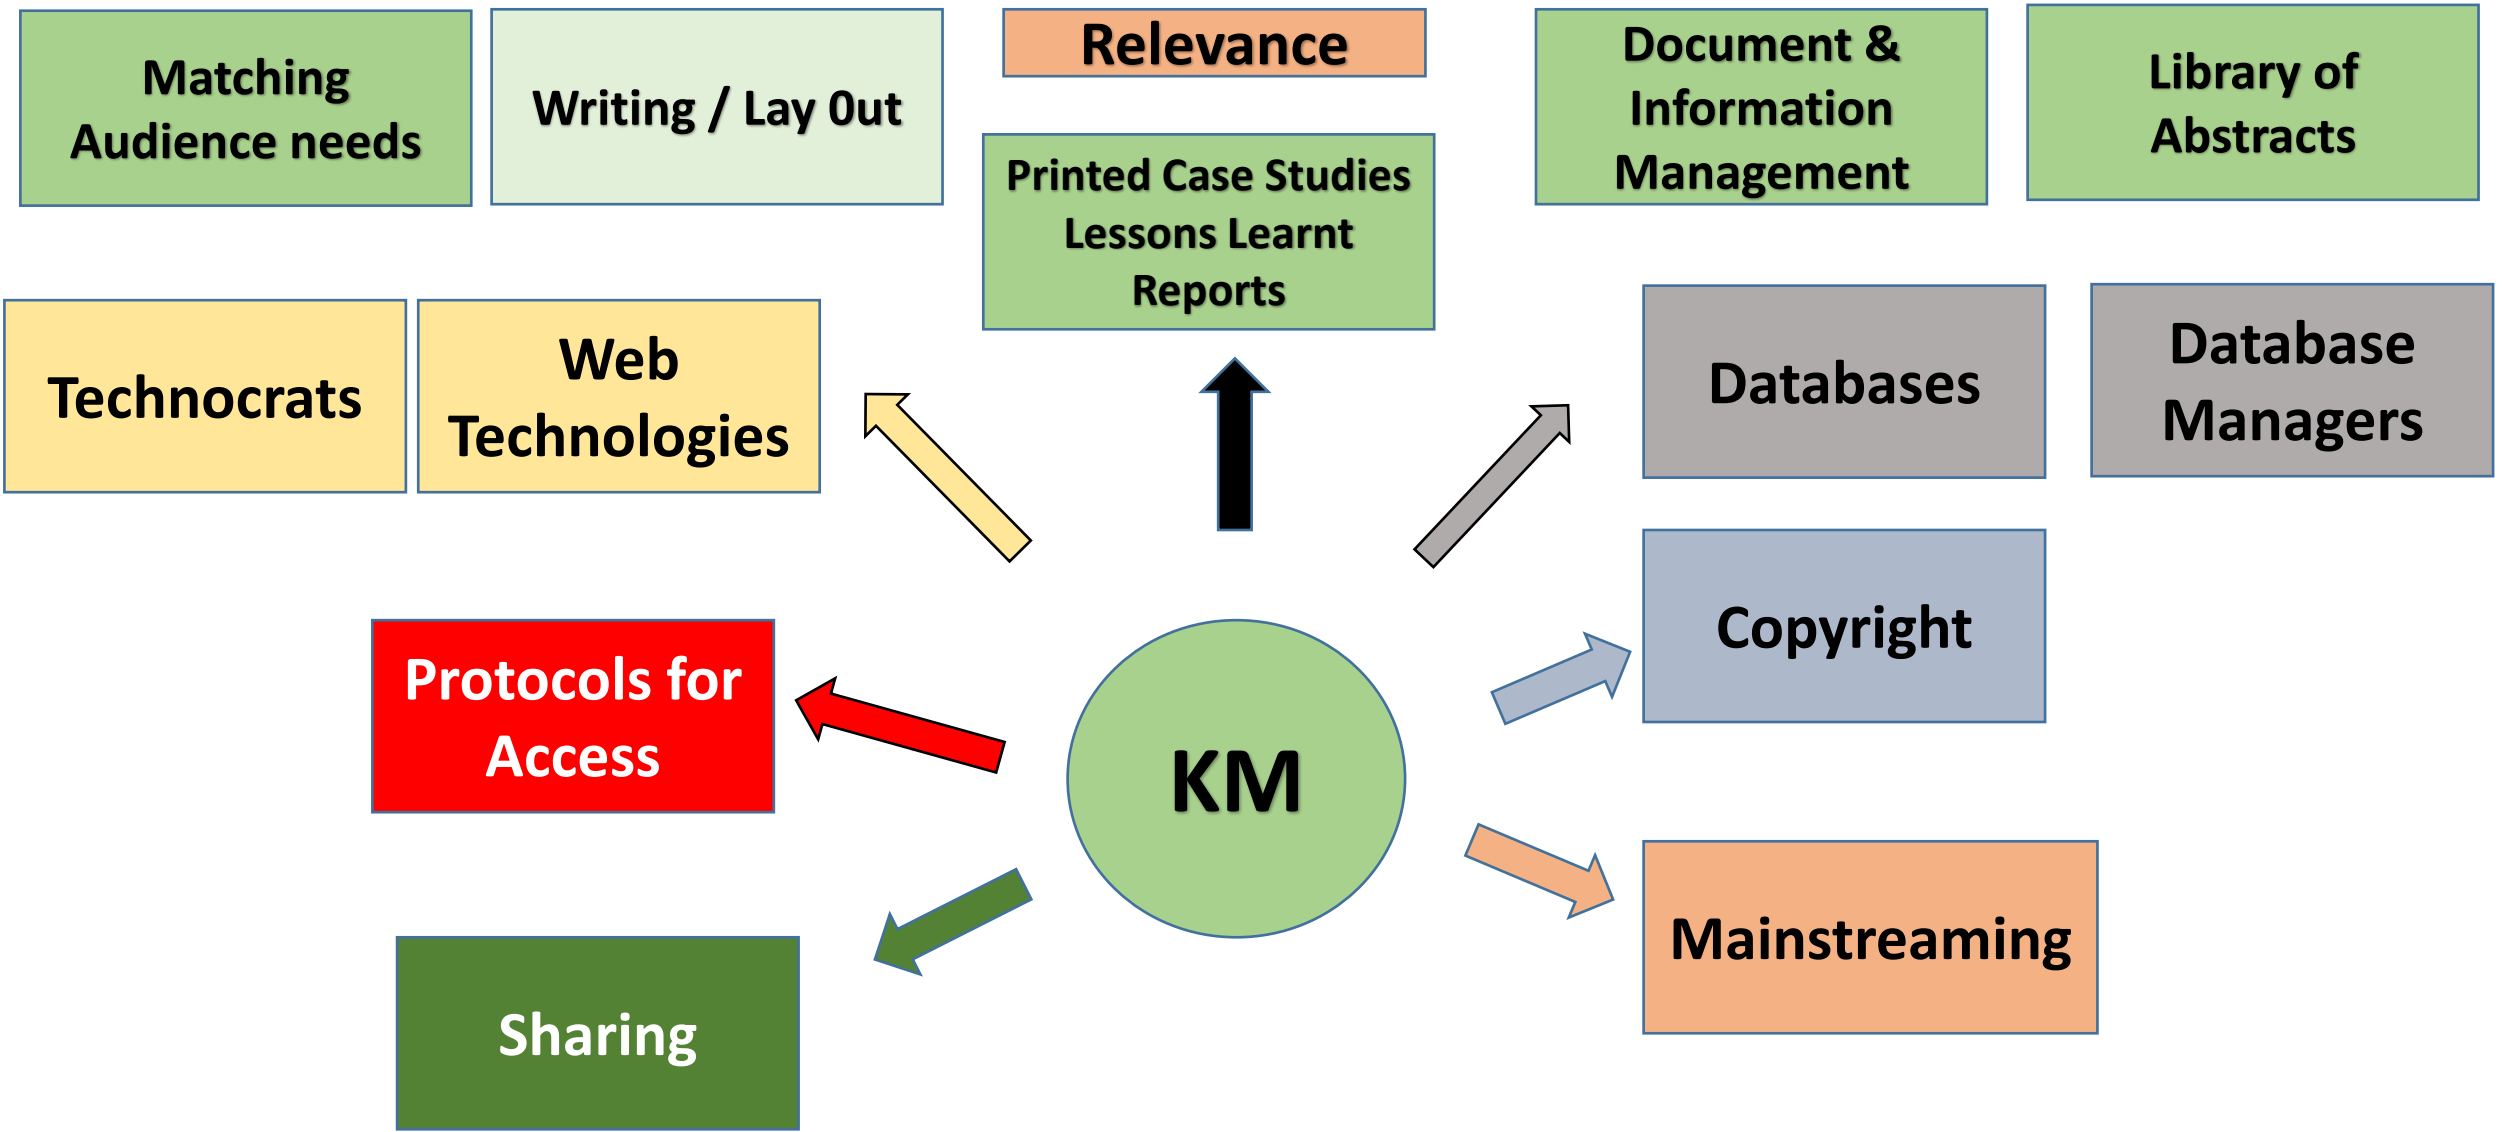

Knowledge Products for Preparedness

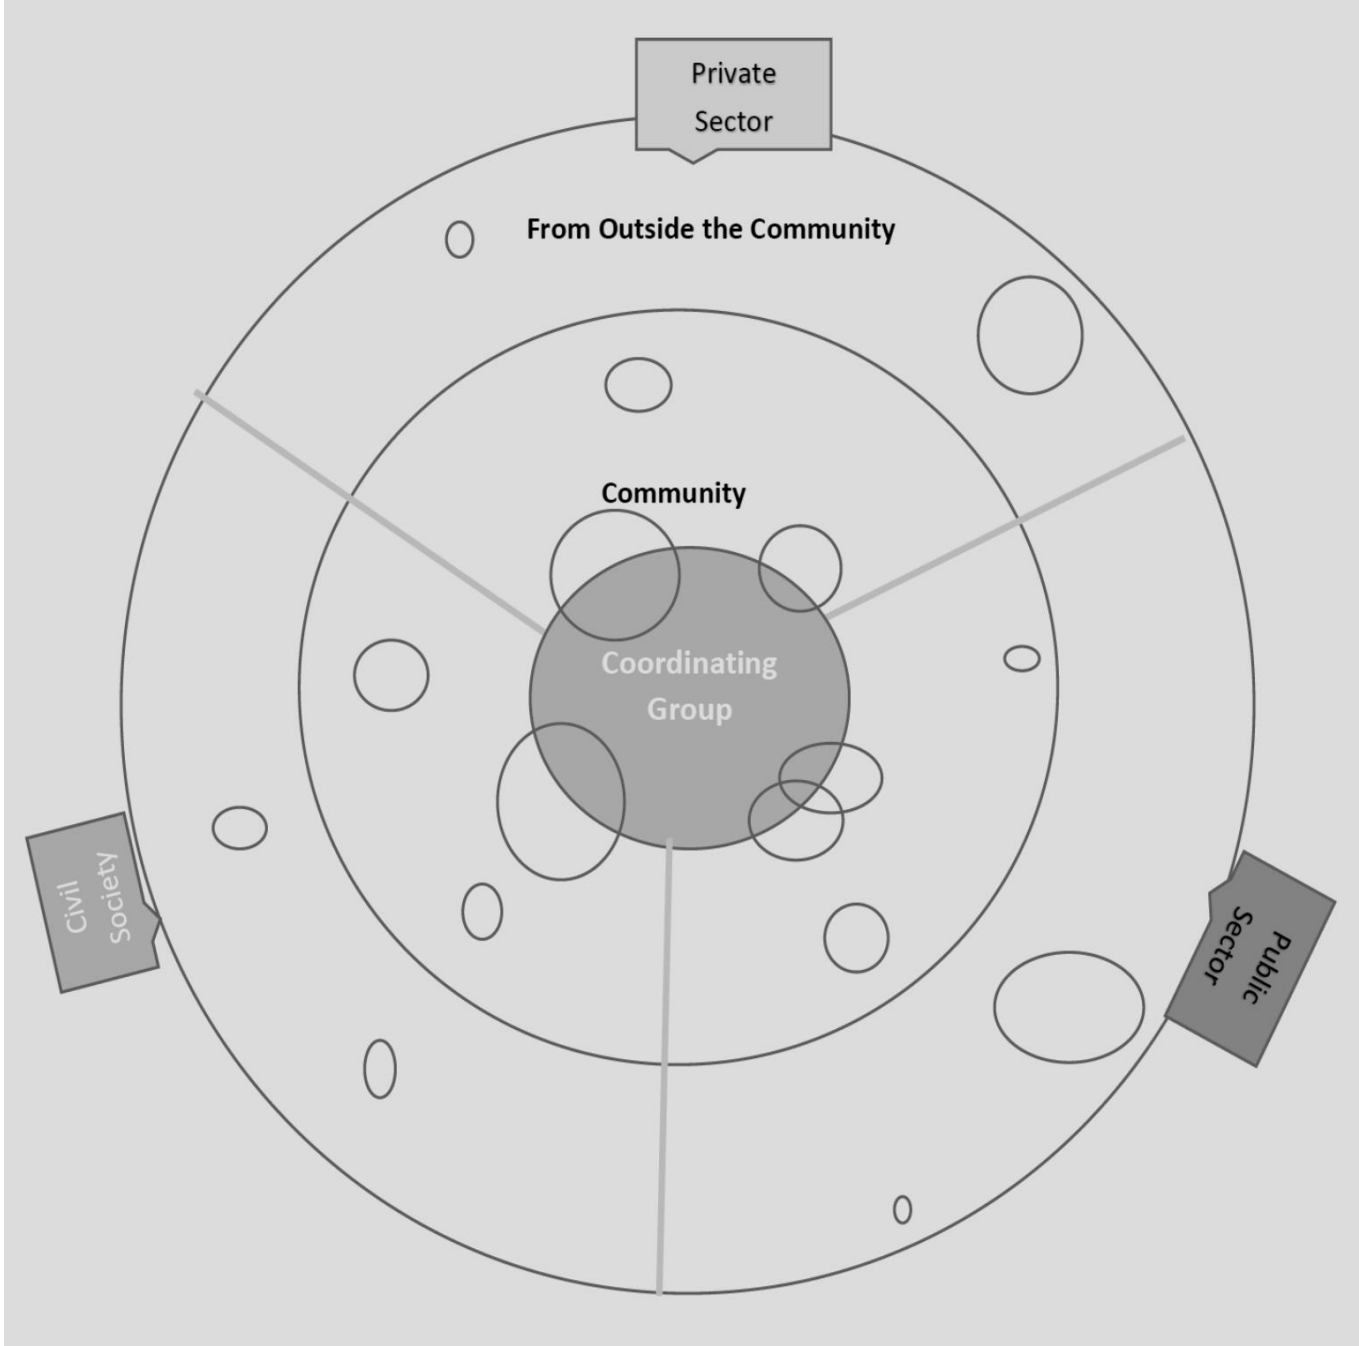

Stakeholders

- Global
- Regional
- National
 - Government Agencies
 - INGO
 - NGO
- Sub national
 - NGO
 - CBO

The Three “C”s of Knowledge Management

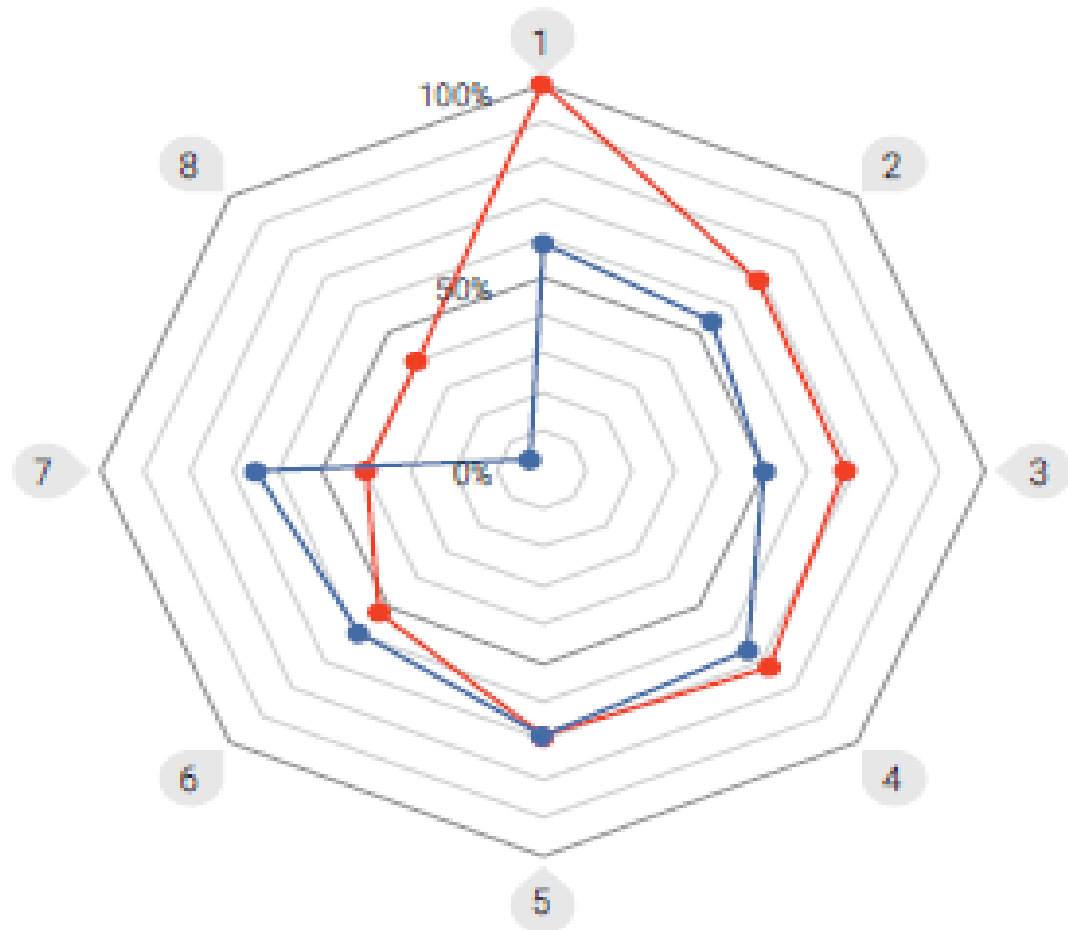

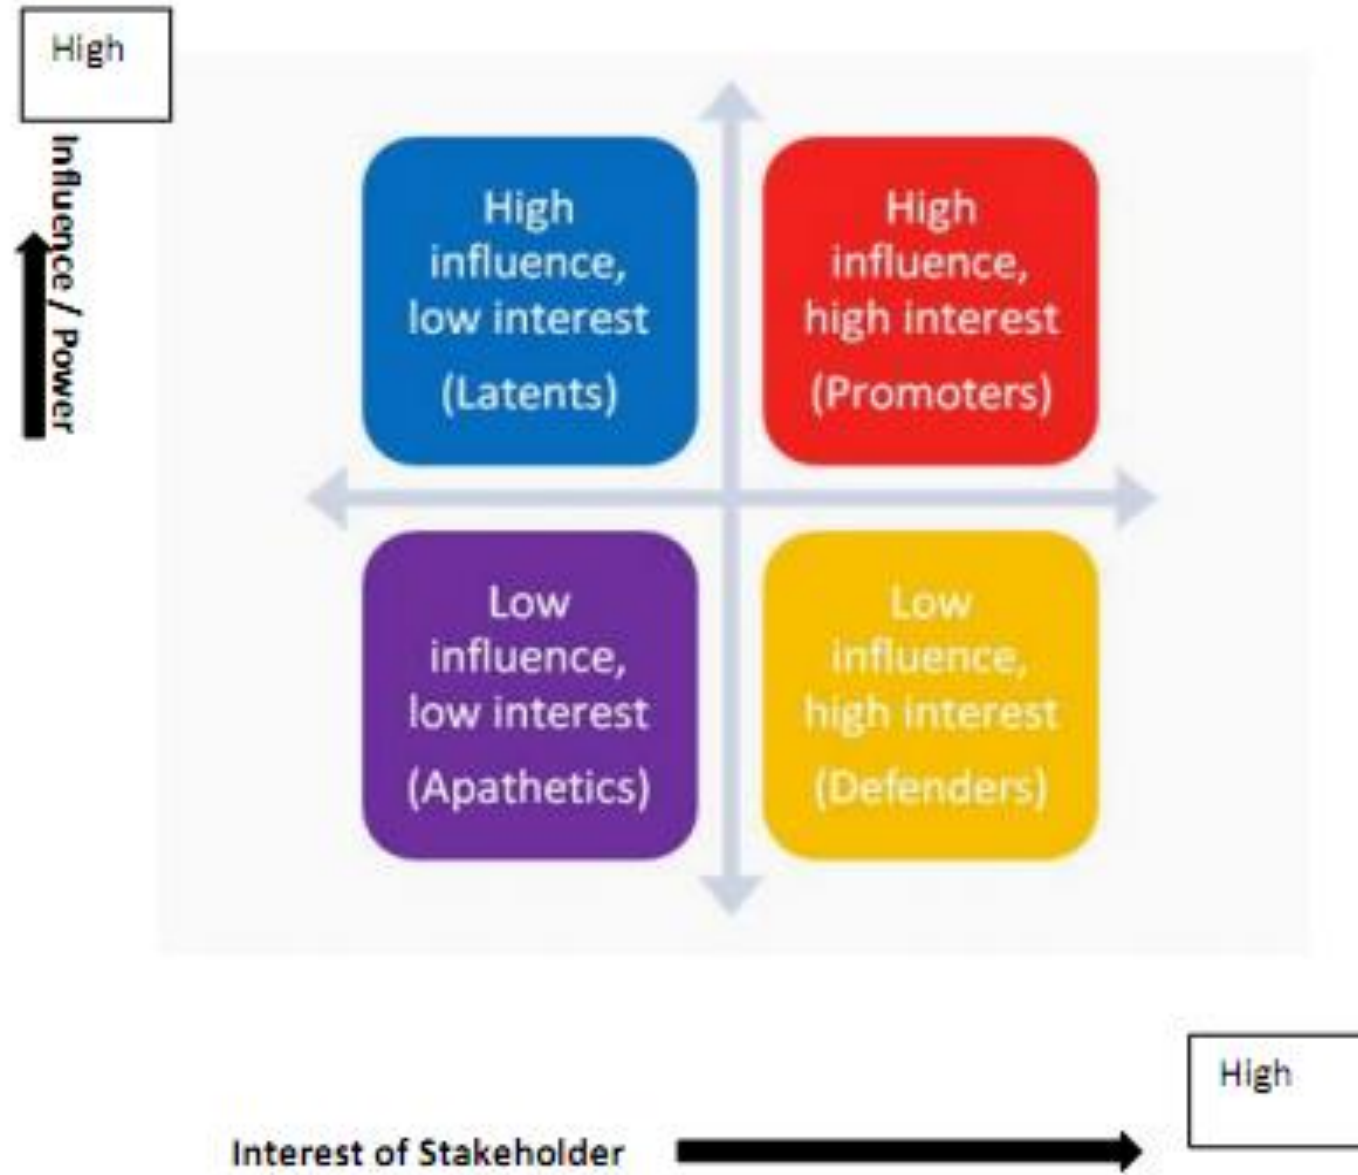

1 Government	2 International NGOs	3 Bilateral organizations	4 Donor agencies
5 Local NGOs	6 UN organizations	7 Private organizations	8 Media

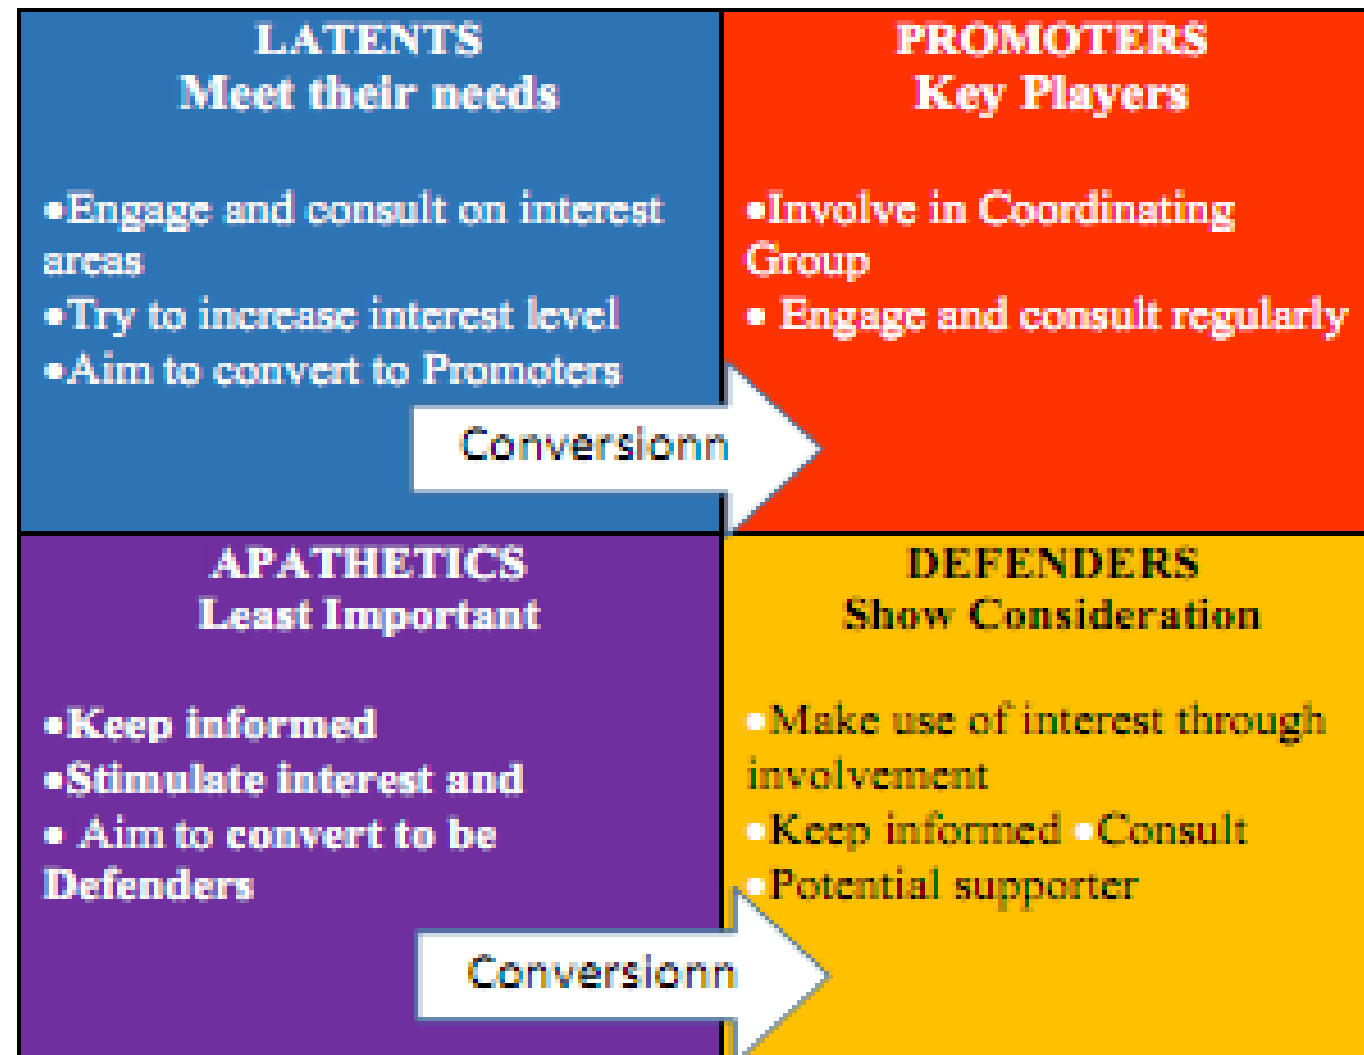

—● LNGOs
 —● Government

Stakeholders

Stakeholders

Thank You